

Screed – Baskerville House, Birmingham

Project details:

Baskerville House is a conversion of Grade II listed 1930s building in Birmingham City Centre to high quality category A offices. The development has been awarded a 'very good' BREEAM rating.

Lyttag[®] 4/8mm lightweight aggregate was used for lightweight floor screeds within the project to keep imposed weight to a minimum.

Project:

Baskerville House,
Birmingham

Date:

2006

Client:

Targetfollow Birmingham Ltd

Architect:

Rolfe Judd group Practice,
London

Structural Engineer:

Buro Happold, London

Project Manager:

Mace Ltd.

Main Contractor:

Alfred McAlpine Project
Services

